From the President's Desk

Mike Hay - WCGS President

As we welcome Spring 2013 (this morning's wind chill at -6 degrees), after having to cancel the March 5th workshop because of a snowstorm, I'm hoping that the weather gods will look a little more favorably on us for the rest of the year!

We have been busy making plans for this year's activities, which now include our Cemetery Walk, which is slated to take place on July 6th at the Oakwood Cemetery at Sharon. We will be looking at tombstones (as soon as we can find them under the snow) to determine which folks our presenters can talk about. If anyone knows of persons who are buried in Oakwood, let us know so we can make preparations.

Deb Ketchum, our librarian, has been busy making our library more "user friendly" and is doing a great job of it. Stop in and see the changes. Our library staff of volunteers is also undergoing some changes with Marilyn Traver and Karen Weston taking half days to help researchers who visit. Any members who would like to assist would be greatly appreciated. Having more than one society member is helpful when three or more visitors come into the library at once.

Our Family History Fair will be taking place in late September or early October on a Saturday, and we are making plans. If you have any suggestion, please contact me. We need our members to help take part in the fair, both to represent our Society and to help encourage family researching.

We have been contacted by the activities director at Arbor Village/Village Glen of Geneva Crossings in Lake Geneva to present a program for the residents on May 1st at 2:00 pm. We plan on describing our Society, and showing some methods of research as to what information is available, and encouraging them to relate their stories to their families. If you would like to participate in this activity, we will be very happy to have you join us. Although these residents are not able to get to our library or meetings, they are interested in what we do and they may encourage their families to get involved with our group.

I'm always open to any suggestions and/or comments from our Society members. You can contact me at the email address shown on the back page of this newsletter or you can phone me at 262-279-6541.

2013 represents the 25th anniversary of WCGS. At the February Show -N- Share program I gave the group trivia questions on what they know about the Society. Quite a few knew some answers but nobody had them all. Let's see how much you know of the Society. Answers are below.

1. In the fall of 1986 eight women came together to form WCGS besides Bette Cameron name two others.
2. Over the years we have had quite a few speakers but none so entertaining as Craig Pfannkuche. Can you name two of the programs he has done for us?
3. One of our annual events is the Cemetery Walk where we represent and tell the history of ancestors. Can you name the cemeteries we have done programs at? Hint - there has been six of them.
4. WCGS's library has been in two locations can you name them?
5. There's been 9 Presidents over the years. Three of them have been men. Not counting the current president, can you name them?
6. How many members were there at the end of our first year?

WCGS will be celebrating our 25th anniversary throughout the year. A good start has been the new look at the library. Since the first of the year I've rearranged the furniture. I'm now working on the bookshelves. Currently, I've moved and relabeled the "Surname" binders, the WI Counties binders and the entire section for Walworth County. Next are the books for the rest of the US. Stop in and give us a once over.

In February, Matheson Memorial Library lost a great asset in Angela Meyers, Adult Services Librarian. She has set off for a new adventure in the Waukesha County Federated Library System in New Berlin. WCGS was on hand to bid her a fond farewell. Her expertise in the worldwide web, resource materials and computer knowledge will be missed.

If you know of brothers who went in the civil war, check them also, just in case both were together in the same regiment. My gr-grandfather was in two different regiments, but he was listed in the one he was mustered out of. Looking in the regiment his brother had served in, Franklin was also listed.

First President of WHITEWATER, Wisconsin

Submitted by Marilyn Traver

Newton M. Littlejohn, was born July 28, 1823, the son of Tilly and Nancy Littlejohn. He is a native of Litchfield, Herkimer Co. N.Y. He moved to Hamilton, N. Y. When he was quite young, and married on Sept. 8, 1848 to Miss Jane S. Newton, daughter of A. Newton. Jane was born in Bridgewater, Oneida Co., N. Y. They had two children—Jessie and Ernest.

Newton was educated in DeLancy Institute, Hampton Springs, and lived in Illinois from 1852 to 1854. He traveled to Chesterfield Court House, VA and then back to Hamilton N.Y. He made Whitewater, Walworth County, WI his home in 1856 and had a successful lumber business there.

On March 6, 1858 forty-two villagers were considering incorporating the village and after a charter was made the Legislature passed an act to incorporate the village. In the election of May 27 1858 Mr. Newton M. Littlejohn became the first president of the village. He also was mayor in 1901 for a term of 2 years. In 1861 he was elected Chairman of Whitewater and re-elected each term during the late war, and many terms since, having served 18 years in all.

During the war years, he had the job of getting the quota of troops for his town and he performed his office duties in a satisfactory and credible manner however unpleasant they were.

In the fall of 1863 Newton was elected to the state Senate on the Republican ticket and served for a total of 6 successive years representing Walworth County. He proved himself to be an able, patriotic legislator in State and National matters.

He was President of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Madison for 4 years in addition to other public trusts he handled.

Newton M. Littlejohn House, c. 1859; 428 W. Main St. Whitewater, Wisconsin.,

"This Italianate style home, built of cream city brick, was built for a Littlejohn, a businessman who owned the only lumberyard in the city for decades. Like many prominent businessmen of the time, he chose a Main Street address because it was "where you wanted to be," Cartwright said."

Are You Related To Me?

In this newsletter, the spotlight is on Dale & Barb Wheelock who have been with the Society since the beginning.

1. How did you get interested in genealogy?

Years ago the Delavan Enterprise listed all the burials in Spring Grove & St. Andrews. Of course, the first thing I did was to look for Wheelock. I found wife and child of Adelbert. Since my father's middle name was Adelbert I was interested. Going to the Court House I found that she was my Great Grandmother. About that time, Gateway offered a genealogy class taught by Bette Cameron. I told my wife I would babysit the kids if she would take the class. As the class went on it was decided to start the Walworth County Genealogical Society. For some years the query box was on our kitchen table.

After a few years, Barb was elected Darien Town Clerk and could not make the Society meetings. After she retired I was elected to the Town Board so I can't make the meetings.

2. Names, places and date of ancestors.

Wheelock, Baker, Chapman, and all associated lines 1848 to present.

3. Names and places:

.Walworth, Rock, and Jefferson counties..

4. Burial areas:

Walworth, Rock, and Jefferson counties.

5. Any Vets in your family line?

Many

6. Have you visited the old homestead? Does it still exist today?

No, most are gone.

7. Anything interesting happen while researching?

8. Any surprises in your research?

Other than finding the feared horse thief. I moved here 36 years ago knowing that some of my people were from Janesville, but am shocked at the number of people I'm related to that are still living in the area. Some I have known for years when my research showed we are related.

9. Please contact WCGS to network with me.

Editor's note: Until I started looking into my family's genealogy, I did not think that I was related to anyone in the town I grew up in. After researching my mother's family, I was astonished to learn that she was related through the years to quite a few people in the area. Unfortunately, she had already passed so she never learned this fact. So, I understand Dale's shock quite well.

Martha is still hoping to get more members to participate in "Are You Related to Me". If anyone needs the blank layout, or would like a word document form, send an email to wcdgsnewsletter@gmail.com.

M & M Tips

Driver's License Renewal Requirements

Effective January 14, 2013, Wisconsin DMV is issuing driver licenses and identification cards that meet new federal REAL-ID requirements.

When you renew your license, you will receive an 8 x 11 receipt with your photo on it. This can be used as your license until you receive your real license, which will be mailed to you. Therefore, be absolutely certain that your address listed on the receipt is correct.

If your renewal is not for six, seven, or eight years, like mine, be aware that within the next five years it is expected that your current license will not be good enough identification for airports and federal buildings. However, if you have a valid U.S. passport or another acceptable form of federal identification, you can use that for identification instead of a REAL-ID driver's license.

According to the Wisconsin DOT, if you want to get a REAL-ID driver's license you need to provide proof of your name, date of birth, U.S. legal presence, identity, Social Security Number, address (where you live not a P.O. box), and name change (if applicable).

If you are a current Wisconsin resident who has never changed your name, you can get a REAL-ID license by bringing a certified U.S. birth certificate, a Wisconsin driver's license with current address and a Social Security Card.

Check out the Wisconsin Department of Transportation web site at <http://www.dot.wisconsin.gov/drivers/drivers/realid/> for further information.

Lifewriting

We attended a lifewriting workshop presented by Burlington Genealogical Society at Gateway in Burlington. Mike drew a floor plan of the home he grew up in. He started remembering little details he hadn't thought of in years. We're planning to have a workshop about this some time in the future.

Cemetery Walk Oakwood Cemetery in Sharon

Our cemetery walk this year is at Oakwood Cemetery in Sharon. We are searching for individuals who have family buried in this cemetery who would be interested in representing their ancestor for the cemetery walk. It is always more interesting for the visitors if the representative is related to the buried individual.

If you know of anyone, please contact Deb Ketchum at debgenvol@gmail.com or call her at (262) 215-0118.
